“Newport, RI: A City Built to Entertain, Educate, and Inspire”

Tuesday, November 28th from 7-8:45pm

Newport, RI is among the most visited cities in the northeastern United States and among the most historic towns in the U.S. Newport has a whole smorgasbord of sights and activities to keep any tourist busy.

Join David Kriso from Two Brothers Travel in Hasbrouck Heights, NJ for an adventurous visitor’s guide and history lesson on New England’s most charming city by the sea. Among the many topics, he will include the top five must-sees:

- The Breakers, the largest mansion in Newport, built by Cornelius Vanderbilt and a National Historic Landmark.
- Salve Regina University, founded in 1947 by the Sisters of Mercy in one of the most gorgeous mansions in Newport; Ochre Court.
- International Tennis Hall of Fame, established in 1954, where the game of tennis is celebrated through the great players who made the game as popular as it is today.
- Fort Adams, named after former president John Quincy Adams. It is the oldest fort in the northeastern United States.
- Thames Street, in the heart of historic Newport, with a variety of restaurants and novelty shops.
