The Friends of the Library

The Friends of the Library are back and ready for you!

Do you love the library and are you looking to volunteer? The Friends of the Library might be the perfect fit for you.

The mission of the Friends of the Mt. Olive Public Library:

We are a 501©(3) non-profit group of volunteers, separate from the library, who make a difference in supporting and enhancing the Library's programs, services, and collections. We have a common belief that an active, vital library is an important asset to the community. Money raised through memberships, book sales, donations, and other fundraisers helps purchase materials and fund programs beyond the means of the Library budget.

Want to be a Friend?

Visit the library website to fill out the application form or call 973-691-8686
