The Mount Olive Public Library's Exhibits Policy

The Mount Olive Public Library endeavors to provide the public with quality crafts and art exhibits. Currently there is one glass display case and a gallery wall available for this use. Exhibitors are requested to call or visit the Library to arrange for a convenient time to display their work.

- ❖ Exhibit time shall be one month.
- ❖ All exhibits shall be assembled and disassembled by the exhibitor. However, The Library reserves the right to disassemble the exhibit if it has not been removed by the agreed upon date.
- ❖ The exhibitor must create an itemized list of items included in the display and said list shall be held on record at the Library.
- ❖ An exhibitor may display a sign or business card giving a contact telephone number should someone wish to purchase an item. This communication shall be conducted solely by the exhibitor and the purchaser and shall not have any intervention by a member of the Library staff.
- ❖ The Library shall make every effort to protect the exhibit. However, the Library shall not be responsible for any damage.
- ❖ Mount Olive residents will be given priority for unscheduled months.
- ❖ The Library Director reserves the right to refuse an exhibit.
