

The Mount Olive Public Library Presents:
Maximizing High School Potential and the College Application Process

Saturday, September 14, 2019
1:00pm (in our Gathering Room)

If you have a middle school or high school student you plan to send to college, join Paul Kelly, a Private Guidance Counselor from College Edge Counseling Services, for this free seminar to help them get a competitive advantage as they prepare for college. It is 30-35 minutes, followed by a brief Q&A period.

The presentation covers such topics as establishing a strong academic profile, the importance of writing, building a college resume, conducting a college search and resources for financial aid.
